

Kinders, do you remember your prayer train...how about the part where God tells you to pray for your prayer pals?

Who are some of your pals? Here are some ideas: your family, friends, teachers, soldiers, and do not forget, even the people that may have hurt you.

To help you remember your prayer pals, let's make some pal puppets!!

Materials needed:

Markers and tongue depressors

Instructions:

Cut out your pals, color them, however you would like to, and then glue your legs, body, and arms onto your sticks! Now, write the names of your pals on them!
